

Chase the Lion

Week 10
Chapters 19 & 20

Read Proverbs 22:29

Question: What does it mean to be a man of diligence in your work?

Quote: Don't seek opportunity; seek God and opportunity will seek you. The best path to your dream isn't seeking a position of leadership; it's posturing yourself as a servant.

Question: What strikes you in this quote?

Read Proverbs 16:18

- Pride is the first chapter in the book of failure
- Humility is the first chapter in the book of success

Question: God won't put you in a position of leadership until you take a posture of servanthood. What do you think about this statement?

George Washington reminded his troops of whom they were fighting for - the fate of millions of unborn Americans. So, it was with Abraham Lincoln as he led a nation to abolish slavery so that no American would live in the bondage of not being free.

Question: What are you doing today that will make a difference one hundred years from now?

Don't worry about the things that have zero bearing on eternity. Your only regret at the end of the day will be the time, talent, and treasure you didn't give back to God.

Question: So what are you doing about it? What are you giving back to God in which he has given you?

You're going to meet an old man someday down the road – ten, thirty, fifty years from now – waiting for you. That old man will be you. He'll be the composite of everything you do, say, and think – today and tomorrow. His heart will be turning out what you've been putting into it. Every little thought, every deed goes in to this old man.

Question: How is that man becoming? Does the man reflect a God's man?

Final thought: Chase the Lion isn't just a book; it's a call to arms! God is our Refuge and our Shield. He is also our Banner – the God who goes before us, the God who fights for us! You are the lion chaser!
